

Guohui Fan

Counsel

Tokyo

Practice Experience

Guohui Fan joined White & Case in October 2005 to help answer the growing need for legal advice on transactions involving both Japan and China. A native Chinese speaker who is equally fluent in Japanese, Mr. Fan advises both Japanese clients with investments in China and Chinese clients with business interests in Japan. Mr. Fan has been qualified in China as a lawyer for over 20 years and has a breadth of experience in general corporate matters and

M&A, as well as cross-border investments and joint-ventures.

Before moving to Japan, Mr. Fan practiced at another leading law firm for over 8 years, where he advised on the Chinese Ministry of Petroleum Industry's petroleum chemical engineering projects. After completing the doctoral program at the University of Tokyo Graduate School of Law and Politics, Mr. Fan joined another leading law firm in Tokyo in 1997 and subsequently qualified as a Gaikokuho Jimu Bengoshi in 1999. Mr. Fan served as President of the Chinese Lawyers Society in Japan from 2000 – 2002 and regularly contributes to leading publications in Japan.

Publications

Co-author, "A Comprehensive Guide for Business in China, Latest Legislation and Practice Revised and Updated Second Edition," Nihon Noritsu Kyokai Management Center, March 2005

Bars and Courts

Registered as Gaikokuho Jimu Bengoshi in Japan, 1999
All China Lawyers Association, PRC, admitted 1985

Education

LL.B., Heilongjiang University, Haerbin, Heilongjiang, PRC, 1983
Research Student, The University of Tokyo Graduate School of Law and Politics, Tokyo, Japan, 1989-1991
LL.M., The University of Tokyo, Tokyo, Japan, 1993
J.D., The University of Tokyo, Tokyo, Japan, 1997

Professional Associations

Heilongjiang Bar Association (PRC)
Tokyo First Bar Association
Japan-China Lawyers Society
Chinese Lawyers Society in Japan (served as President from 2000 to 2002)

Languages

Chinese, Japanese, English

Citizenship

People's Republic of China